Dear Sir,

In regard to the price charged Gibbs & Bowie, for the 10 x 12 plates I charged only the contract price which I charge the Gallery.
I held the Negatives subject to your orders as I did not suppose they would be of any use to them, but will forward them at once if you say so

Gentlemen:

The cotton-screens over the skylights of the Picture-Galleries, having become rotten & rust-stained, I suggest that I be authorized to procure new ones, which will require 84 1/2 yds of cotton sheeting.

Wm. MacLeod Esq. – Curator of the Corcoran Gallery of Art,

Dear Sir,

The Board of Management of the R. I. School of Design desire me to express their thanks for the most acceptable gift of photographs presented to the school by the Trustees of the Corcoran Gallery of Art. They will not only adorn the walls of the school and assist in fostering the study of art, but will indicate the interest in our institution felt by the Trustees – a proof of the fellowship that a love of the beautiful awakens.

The absence of the Officers of the School from the city has caused the delay in replying to your note.

Very respectfully yours
Sarah E. Doyle Lecy

Dear Sir. Inclosed I send one dollar ($1.00) and ask you to send home to the address I give, one photograph of the paint= =ing called "Charlotte Cerday".

You were out of the size I wish when I was at Washington and also when a friend called to get one for me last Saturday evening,

Of course you know I wish it carefully packed and inclose a stamp to pay postage, if that is the way you usually send them if not or if the postage should be more I will return the extra amt.

Please send as good a print as possible & I would rather wait a day or so if you expect soon to have better ones than you may now have on hand -

Please let me know by postal card if this reaches you & when I may expect the photo -

Respectfully
